Two-Stage Robust Optimization for Bi-Level Game

This paper proposes a two-stage robust bi-level game optimization scheduling strategy for a CCHP microgrid with an HRS, which addresses the

Economic Operation of CCHP Microgrid with Heat Pump and Energy

The combined cooling, heating and power (CCHP) microgrid can realize complementary advantages and unified coordinated work between multiple energy sources, and

A Comprehensive Evaluation Model for Microgrid with CCHP

The popularity of CCHP in microgrid brings great challenges to the evaluation of microgrid. In this paper, a comprehensive evaluation model for microgrid with CCHP is proposed.

A multi-time scale rolling optimization framework for low-carbon

CCHP microgrids integrate distributed energy resources (DERs), conventional generators, storage systems, and flexible loads to establish multi-energy supply networks that simultaneously
