How to know if solar energy is generating electricity

Grammar and use of 'as we know it'

In my understanding, 'as we know it' usually follows a noun phrase and means like The building as we know it = the version/condition of the building we know now. First, I'm not sure about

"doesn't know" vs "don't know"

It's not just you that doesn't know. Now, according to owl.purdue, we should use "doesn't" when the subject is singular (except when the subject is "you" or "I"), and "don't" otherwise.

To know something "inside out" or "inside and out"?

As a native English speaker (Australia) I've always known and used the expression "to know something inside out", meaning "to know thoroughly". Just now when editing a post on another

"know of" vs "know about"

If you know about a subject, you have studied it or taken an interest in it, and understand part or all of it. Hire someone with experience, someone who knows about real estate.

Should I use "did you know" or "do you know" to introduce a fact?

Should I use "did you know" or "do you know" to introduce a fact? I've only seen "did you know" in action. My logical deduction is that before the "question" (which is not much of a question to know vs to know about

Possible duplicate of "Know about" vs. "know of". Also What are the differences between "know", "know about", and "know of"? on English Language Learners, which is probably a better site for questions

"Know about" vs. "know of"

Recently one of my friends told me that there is distinct difference between 'know of something' and 'know about something' expressions. 'know of' is used when you have personal experience with wha
